Grange-over-Sands:

This is one of the easiest rides in the South Lakeland with the added bonus that if you time your trip right you can visit the ice cream factory at Holme Farm, just east of Grange. The ridestarts by following the 'old' road that runs beneath the dramatic limestone cliffs of White Scar. Pass safely beneath the A590 to join a lovely flat lane with fine views towards Arnside Knott. The road climbs the descends through woodland after Meathop to bring you to the ice cream factory at Holme Farm. If you continue into Grange please take care as the B5277 road is very busy before the promenade is re-joined along the front. This is a there and back ride so retrace your steps back to the start.

By train, book your bike to Grange-over-Sands and ride the route in reverse. Refreshments and cafés are in Witherslack.
